

Claire Keane, LMFT is an AAMFT Clinical Member. She has a M.A. Special Education in the field of Learning Disabilities and Ed. S. in School Psychology. She retired from the DeKalb County School System after 35 years. Her educational experiences have been as a first grade teacher, a SLD teacher and a school psychologist. She has been a licensed LMFT since 1991 and has a part time practice in Clayton, Georgia at the Family Art Therapy Center where she specializes in play therapy with children and adolescents. She is working towards her RPT.