

Anne Koenig received her M.S. in Counseling and Education from McDaniel College in Westminster, Maryland. For the last 10 years, Anne has been in private practice in Atlanta, where she sees families, couples and individuals. In addition to being a Licensed Professional Counselor, Anne is a Registered Play Therapist and Supervisor. She is active in the counseling community as an associate member of the Georgia Association for Marriage and Family Therapists, a member of the Georgia Association for Play Therapists, and the Jungian Society of Atlanta.

